Celebration of National Mathematics Day - 2024

20th December 2024

Report

The birthday of the great Indian Mathematician Srinivasa Ramanujan is celebrated as National Mathematics Day. To celebrate this day, the Science and Humanities Department of Government Polytechnic, Ahmedabad organized a webinar that was open to all concerned participants.

Professor (Dr.) Chirag Thaker, Head of the CE department, L D college of Engineering delivered a highly informative and enlightening webinar on the topic: Exploring Mathematical Avenues in Achieving AI Milestones

Around 85 participants including students and faculties of various branches benefited from this webinar. Dr. Thaker revealed the importance of mathematics in different engineering fields summing up with the importance of “M” in STEM education. An interesting twist was brought to everyone's knowledge by Dr. Thaker that, the current era requires STEAM as an evolving version of STEM where the “A” stands for ART.
